

Mitch Dickey

Psychologist
Investor
Serial entrepreneur
Social scientist
Management consultant
Man of Faith

Clinical and scientific experience

Manager of an outpatient counseling center – Kent, OH
Therapist – Yale Psychological Services Clinic
Trained seven cohorts of therapists
Faculty – Purdue University PhD program in Marriage and Family Therapy
Faculty – Southern Connecticut State University Masters in MFT program
Private practice since 1994 – licensed psychologist
Therapist – Center for Hope and Renewal
National research award on emotional intelligence
National research award in family process
Yale School of Medicine – Research Scientist – Quality of Care under Managed Care
Consultant, Yale-Berkeley welfare reform evaluation
Consultant, NIDA R18 substance abuse treatment grant
Co-editor, "Science into Practice" column. The Family Psychologist
American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, Member, Approved Supervisor
American Psychological Association, Member
Division 43, APA - President's Task Force on Collaboration between Clinicians and Researchers, Chair

Business experience

Cofounder of The Inflection Point

- Management consultant to organizational assessment, executive coaching
- Leadership, culture and employee development

Investor – Managing Director at Ash Creek Capital Advisors
Research Consultant to the Center for Organizational Fitness – Harvard Business School/Michael Beer
Consultant for the National Executive Services Core
Founder of Relational Intelligence
Behavioral Health Subcommittee on Medicaid Managed Care - State of Connecticut
Quality Assurance Subcommittee on Medicaid Managed Care - State of Connecticut

Education and training

Kenyon College, BA
Kent State University – Masters
Yale University – PhD
Yale School of Medicine – Research Scientist
Yale School of Management
Institute for Juvenile Research
Emotionally-focused Therapy